

Mrs. Dicken's
Newsletter
Thursday, Sept. 10th

Important Dates

Picture Retakes
Sept. 22nd

Next Library Trip Sept.
23rd!

Classroom News

- I sent out invites for signupgenius.com for library volunteers
- On Friday, September 11, 2015, JRCES will be recognizing Patriot Day and the National Day of Service. In recognition of this holiday, students are encouraged to wear "Patriotic Attire"...including the colors of red, white, and blue. This is clothing only, no hair, body, or face painting. They will not be required to wear their uniform that day. Our class will be discussing what it means to serve others and what a patriot is. If you have any questions, you may call our Dean of Students, Mrs. Fulmer.

Be Respectful

Be Responsible

Be Safe

Our classroom website is up and running check it out at :

mrsdickenjrcees.weebly.com

Please make sure they are getting 20 minutes of reading each night!

Lunch Menu

Monday: Corn Dogs

Tuesday: Chicken Wrap

Wednesday: Chicken Fajitas

Thursday: Pulled Pork Sandwich

Friday: Pizza

Snack Next Week:

Mon: Kaleb

Tues: Lilli

Wed: Bring your own

Thurs: K'Vion

Fri: Taliyah

What We're Learning

Reading: Read to Self, Read to Someone, Writing, and Word Work.

This week the kids have been learning about cause and effect in our reading.
Ask your child to share some causes and effects from Angry Birds.

Math: This week we practiced addition and subtraction.

Writing: We opened up the writing center this week and the kids absolutely loved it! Right now we are writing lists and responding to journal prompts. We will be adding to this weekly. Please send any old cookbooks, recipe cards, cards, notes, list paper, etc. for our writing center!

I am still taking scholastic book club orders. We will stop taking orders September 18. You can order online or send a paper order in. Remember if we reach $300, we will get new books for our classroom library!

